

The Third St. Petersburg Winter Workshop on Experimental Studies of Speech and Language (Night Whites 2015)

Friday, December 18

9:15-9:45 Registration

9:45-10:00 Opening remarks by Tatiana Chernigovskaya

10:00-11:00 Keynote Lecture 1:
Controlling competition in speaking:
Brain potentials to morphological encoding during language production
Harald Clahsen

11:00-11:25 Coffee break

11:25-13:05 Session 1

11:25-11:50 Relative clause processing in Turkish
Emine Yarar

11:50-12:15 Picture-Sentence Mismatches in the Blank Screen Paradigm
Katharina Wandler

12:15-12:40 The role of second language proficiency (L2) ~~on~~in semantic priming: Evidence from bilingual adult Russian (L1) –English (L2) speakers
Evgenia Volkovyskaya

12:40-13:05 How number attraction affects the comprehension of grammatical sentences
Katja Suckow

13:05-14:00 Lunch break (sandwiches will be provided, ~~one can buy~~ hot food can be purchased in the departmental canteen)

14:00-15:40 Session 2

14:00-14:25 Imageability and past tense: imageability effects are not limited to irregular verbs
Filip Smolík

14:25-14:50 The role of syncretism in number agreement: new evidence from Russian
Natalia Slioussar

14:50-15:15 Online neurophysiological measures of lexicon acquisition
Yury Shtyrov

15:15-15:40 Extended syllable cues in tip-of-the-tongue resolution
Nina Jeanette Sauer

15:40-16:05 Coffee break

16:05-17:45 Session 3

16:05-
16:30 Sleep-related consolidation of new form-meaning mappings in adult language learning

Anastasia Roshchupkina

16:30-
16:55 Number attraction in Serbian: What is more attractive?

Bojana Ristić

16:55-
17:20 The role of intonation for spoken word recognition: experimental evidence

Elena Riekhakaynen

17:20-
17:45 Sources of processing difficulty in relative clauses: Evidence from Russian

Iya Khelm Price

17:45-18:00 Short break

18:00-19:00 Keynote Lecture 2:

(to appear soon)

Hanne Gram Simonsen

19:00-20:30 Posters with reception

Saturday, December 19

10:00-11:00 Keynote Lecture 3:

Dialogue mechanisms for mutual understanding

Simon Garrod

11:00-11:25 Coffee break

11:25-13:05 Session 4

11:25-11:50 Voluntary naming in bilinguals : Effects of subliminal priming on language selection

Seema Prasad

11:50-12:15 Overlap and interface between simulated knowledge representations

Andriy Myachykov

12:15-
12:40 Spatial Semantics of 506 Russian Nouns

Alex Miklashevsky

12:40-
13:05 Prosodic factors influencing vowel reduction in Russian

Daniil Kocharov

13:05-14:00 Lunch break (sandwiches will be provided, one can buy hot food in the canteen)

14:00-15:40 Session 5

14:00- Language as is: a multimodal initiative

14:25 Andrej A. Kibrik

14:25- “Lost and found”: Applying the savings paradigm in case of pervasive 14:50 language loss

Ludmila Isurin

14:50- Individual Differences in Suprasegmental Prosody: L2 Acquisition versus L1
15:15 Attrition

Lindy Comstock

15:15- Schalter, šapka, šaška – An Eye Tracking Study of Coactivation in the Mental 15:40 Lexicon of Russian-German Bilinguals

Christina Clasmeier

15:40-16:05 Coffee break

16:05-17:45 Session 6

16:05- The role of visual representations in optic aphasia

16:30 Enrico Cipriani

16:30- Developing a Russian test for speech mapping during awake craniotomy

16:55 Anna Chrabaszcz

16:55- MEG correlates of short-term grammatical plasticity: Grammatical number
17:20 processing in Spanish learners of Basque

Ainhoa Bastarrika

17:20- Mixing languages in formal schooling: Where are the negative consequences?

17:45 Eneko Antón

17:45-18:00 Short break

18:00-19:00 Keynote Lecture 4:

Half empty or half full? Nonnative lexical access

Kira Gor

19:00-19:15 Conference closure

Poster session

- 1. Russian declensional paradigms from the perspective of the informational approach
Maria D. Vasilyeva
- 2. Good and bad are green and black: Evidence from a Stroop effect
Elina Tsigeman
- 3. Bilinguals' processing of cognates in native language environment
Irina Temnikova
- 4. Tongue tip stiffness in Russian trills and laterals
Taja Stoll
- 5. Investigating comprehension of nouns and verbs: accuracy and reaction time data
Olga Soloukhina
- 6. Processing differences between synthetic and root compounds
Stefanie Rößler
- 7. The use of gender marking for predictive processing in Norwegian
Yulia Rodina
- 8. Effects of derivational semantics on mental comparison
Zoya Rezanova
- 9. Bilingual development in two orthographically distinct alphabetic writing systems: Evidence from Turkish and English speaking children in the UK
Ilhan Raman
- 10. Role of attention in sentence production
Mikhail Pokhoday
- 11. The acceptable reduction degree for successful spoken word recognition
Yulia Nigmatulina
- 12. Priming "Author-Reader" Interaction
Julia Nenasheva
- 13. The word in itself: what else affects multimodal perception of verbal stimuli?
Elena D. Nekrasova
- 14. Processing of simple and suffixed Russian words: structural and semantic priming effect
Olga Nagel
- 15. An ERP-study on Russian auditory word processing
Kristina Memetova
- 16. The Font-Size Effect in Judgments of Learning with Sentences
Beatriz Martín-Luengo

17. A letter visual-similarity matrix for the Russian alphabet

Alena Konina

18. Developing a language subtest to assess expressive agrammatism: data of healthy controls and individuals with aphasia

Anastasia Kobzeva

19. Speaker Compensation for Physical Obstacles in the Mouth Due to EMA Experiment Setup

Olga Glotova

20. Eye-catching ambiguity: an eye-tracking study of ambiguity resolution

Daria Chernova

21. The characteristics of heterosensory priming in children of preschool age with typical and atypical development

L. V. Cherenkova

22. The Effect of Interlocutor's Language Modality on Deaf Children's Pragmatic Profile and Communication

Felipe Venâncio Barbosa

23. Sign therapy? Language assessment on pre and post intervention in atypical sign language

Felipe Venâncio Barbosa

24. Strength of the recent event preference: the case of verb-action incongruence

Dato Abashidze
